

DEEP STATE 2019:

A NEW GENERATION OF SCANDALOUS MANIPULATION

The year is young, but the storm is already brewing: just when you thought elitist corruption couldn't possibly hit a new low, 2019 came along and set the bar even lower for next-level backdoor criminal activity.

From economic malfeasance to out-and-out human rights violations, the Deep State has found new ways to penetrate and violate our community, unity, sovereignty, and sanity. The conspiratorial elitists stealing our freedom and violating our basic human rights control both the government and monetary regime – and practically everything else.

Today's Deep State bears little resemblance to the comparatively inefficient shadow governments of previous generations. The biggest difference between past and present Deep State activity is that in 2019, they're operating not only with our consent and full permission, but we're now actually aiding and abetting their pervasive and invasive transgressions.

After all, why should they bother with wiretapping our homes when everybody's got Alexa, Echo, and Google Home? And there's no need to bug our landlines (which hardly exist anymore) when cell phone and Internet companies willingly hand our data over to the government.

The Deep State used to actually have to work hard and put time and effort in order on citizens; today, they only need to check our Facebook and Instagram feeds, where we proudly display our innermost thoughts, private data, and day-to-day activities.

Moreover, unlike the good old days when the free press guaranteed by the Constitution was the shadow government's biggest enemy, in 2019, the mainstream media works mainly as a puppet of the Deep State. Because of this, you'll see numerous examples in this exposé of both the press and the public often inadvertently helping deep-level criminals carry out their machinations and manipulations.

Interestingly, the term itself has entered the mainstream lexicon as an omnibus accusation of plotting or scheming, such as when Cory Lewandowski appeared on NBC and attacked James Comey as "part of the Deep State," adding that "he's everything that's wrong in Washington."

DEEP STATE 2019: A NEW GENERATION OF SCANDALOUS MANIPULATION

The Deep State isn't that obvious or easy to pinpoint. In 2019, the shadow government is deeper than ever, and yet it's right in our faces as they mock us by controlling our politicians and CEOs with unprecedented ease.

Take, for example, the high-level entities that control the money flow in America and worldwide: the Rothschild, Soros, and Rockefeller money that comprises the all-powerful global banking cartel. The one-world plutocracy is now entirely managed by a handful of individuals controlling powerful mega-banks such as JPMorgan, Goldman Sachs, Barclays, Deutsche Bank, and Credit Suisse. If you dare to follow the money trail you'll see who's really in charge.

Former congressional staffer Mike Lofgren was among the first to use the term “Deep State” and pinpoint Wall Street’s financial cabal as the shadow government’s primary operative. He observed that at the end of the day, the Deep State isn’t about red or blue states; they’re all about the green, as money is the motive and the means that keeps the machine going.

Lofgren observes that Washington is not the only node of the Deep State, as “invisible threads of money and ambition connect the town to other nodes. One is Wall Street, which supplies the cash that keeps the political machine quiescent and operating as a diversionary marionette theater.”

This has actually been proven after researchers Stefania Vitali, James B. Glattfelder, and Stefano Battiston conducted a comprehensive cross-sectional study of transnational corporations and found that “control is highly concentrated in the hands of few top holders” and that “a large portion of control flows to a small tightly knit core of financial institutions... This core is an economic ‘super-entity.’”

Without a doubt, the controlling “super-entity” among the banking cartel is the notorious Rothschild family. Even Russian President Vladimir Putin has openly admitted that “The Rothschild cabal have infiltrated your government, your media, your banking institutions... They are now doing it on their own soil, desperate to complete the plan for a one world government, world army, complete with a world central bank.”

Putin is conceding that he’s not the one in power, nor has any U.S. president been. Indeed, the Rothschilds are said to control the Federal Reserve, Bank of England, European Central Bank, International Monetary Fund, World Bank, and Bank of International Settlements, as well as most of the world’s gold supply – $231 trillion in total, as estimated by Credit Suisse.

Federal Reserve Chairman Jerome Powell is, at best, a puppet on a string as one entity control the world’s banks. Powell’s efforts to bring Paul Volcker-era fiscal discipline back to the American monetary system were short-lived and squashed with ease.

Any intentions to normalize Treasury yields have been abruptly reversed, with the Fed now competing in a race to the bottom with the European Central Bank.

With real rates (i.e., bond yields minus the rate of inflation) at zero or negative, retirees, investors, and savers are, once again, forced to abandon “risk-free” bonds and pile into the equity market. This ongoing Ponzi scheme keeps the middle class broke by devaluing their fiat money, but it keeps the elite banking cartel fat and happy.

The implications run deep, with moneyed interests controlling political narratives and, of course, the mainstream press outlets that disseminate those narratives. What looks like grassroots, populist movements (yellow vest riots in Europe, hard Brexit marches, Theresa May ouster buzz) are all controlled, orchestrated, and supremely profitable for the global financial elite.

Firethorn Trust founding partner Peter Mather fully admits that political instability and outright violence are viewed as lucrative opportunities for moneyed interests who profit from big market moves that catch hapless retail investors unaware.

Follow the money trail and you'll get an object lesson in how volatility, frequently manifested as violence, creates opportunity. From a self-serving economic perspective, the Deep State has every reason to perpetuate the war machine: human capital for financial capital is a sacrifice they're more than happy to make.

For the shadow government, war and violence aren't so much a human tragedy as a perfect distraction from their underhanded activities – and a massively profitable enterprise. A free, peaceful world doesn't make fiscal sense to those in charge.

They're playing the game masterfully, more now than ever. But if there's one thing the Deep State hates the most, it's an educated populace – which is precisely what we're here to support and promote. To you, then, I say to stay informed, trust only those who deserve it, and protect your freedom and well-being, because the Deep State is trying to steal them from your tomorrow.
